Dina Alexander, recipient of the Best Lawyers 2024 Real Estate Law “Lawyer of the Year” award for Portland, is a founding partner of Radler White Parks & Alexander. Dina's experience with large-scale development projects allows her to strategically advise clients in all stages of a project. Working on land acquisitions, joint ventures, equity and debt financings, construction contracts, condominiums, leases, acquisitions and dispositions, and workouts, she has demonstrated the ability to creatively guide her clients through the entire range of challenges they must overcome to bring complex projects to a successful conclusion. Dina is a fellow in both the American College of Real Estate Lawyers and the American College of Mortgage Attorneys.

Christe White, recipient of the Best Lawyers 2024 Land Use and Zoning Law “Lawyer of the Year” award for Portland, is a founding partner of Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP. Christe works in all areas of land use including every phase of mixed-use and urban infill projects. She has built a reputation for strategic counseling that successfully guides a client through the entire life span of a development project, from the initial planning and strategy phase, through entitlement to the defense of approvals on appeal if necessary. Christe is a fellow in the American College of Real Estate Lawyers.
