Steven P. Hultberg Named Partner of Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP

PORTLAND, ORE., APRIL 5, 2016 – Portland real estate and land use law firm Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP is pleased to announce that Steven P. Hultberg has been named a partner in the firm. Mr. Hultberg has been with Radler White since its formation in 2012 and leads the firm’s Central Oregon office in Bend. He is a member of the firm’s Land Use and Real Estate practice groups.

“Steve has made important contributions to the success of our firm and has earned the high esteem of his clients,” said Barbara Radler, a Founding Partner of Radler White Parks & Alexander LLP. “We are proud to have him as a partner.”

With almost 20 years in private practice, Mr. Hultberg has significant land use entitlement experience, including practice before local governments, administrative agencies, and appellate courts. He also has broad real estate transactional knowledge, working on financing documents, purchase and sale agreements, commercial leases, and easements. His clients include commercial, residential, industrial, and institutional developers, public agencies, timber and agri-business companies, sand and gravel operators and telecommunication companies, as well as several destination resorts in Central Oregon. He also represents Oregon State University in connection with its long-range planning efforts in Bend.

Mr. Hultberg has been selected by his peers for inclusion in the 2016 edition of The Best Lawyers in America© and as a 2015 industry leader by Chambers USA, which has noted that he is “considered a go-to lawyer for all aspects of zoning and land use work.”

Mr. Hultberg serves on the executive board of directors of Economic Development for Central Oregon, a private non-profit organization dedicated to diversifying the Central Oregon economy by recruiting new companies and helping existing firms expand. He has also served on several advisory panels assisting local governments with their infrastructure planning needs, including the City of Bend’s Urban Growth Boundary Technical Advisory Committee and Sewer Infrastructure Advisory Committee.

Mr. Hultberg earned his J.D. from the University of Oregon School of Law. While in law school, he clerked at the Oregon Land Use Board of Appeals (LUBA).
